3. The notice of lifting of suspension of liquidation for entries of subject merchandise covered by paragraph 1 and 2 occurred with the publication of the final results of administrative review (79 FR 19316, 04/08/2014). Unless instructed otherwise, for all other shipments of certain steel nails from the PRC, you shall continue to collect cash deposits of estimated antidumping duties for the merchandise at the current cash deposit rates or per-unit amounts.

4a. The injunction with court number 14-00112 discussed in message number 4141304 dated 05/21/2104 is applicable to the entries which

- i. were the subject of the administrative determination published as Certain Steel Nails From the People's Republic of China: Final Results of the Fourth Antidumping Duty Administrative Review, 79 Fed. Reg. 19316 (April 8, 2014);
- ii. were produced and exported by The Stanley Works (Langfang) Fastening Systems Co., Ltd.;
- iii. were entered or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, during the period August 1, 2011 through July 31, 2012; and
- iv. were the subject of liquidation instructions delivered to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection on April 30, 2014, lifting suspension effective April 8, 2014.

4b. The injunction with court number 13-00368 discussed in message number 3338301 dated
Message Date: 06/17/2014 Message Number: 4168304 Page 3 of 5

12/04/2013 is applicable to the entries of subject merchandise which were imported by Cobra Anchors Co., Ltd., into the United States and which were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption between 08/01/2010 through 07/31/2012.

Accordingly, continue to suspend liquidation of such entries until liquidation instructions are issued.

5. The assessment of antidumping duties by CBP on shipments or entries of this merchandise is subject to the provisions of section 778 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Section 778 requires that CBP pay interest on overpayments or assess interest on underpayments of the required amounts deposited as estimated antidumping duties. The interest provisions are not applicable to cash or bonds posted as estimated antidumping duties before the date of publication of the antidumping duty order. Interest shall be calculated from the date payment of estimated antidumping duties is required through the date of liquidation. The rate at which such interest is payable is the rate in effect under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for such period.

6. Upon assessment of antidumping duties, CBP shall require that the importer provide a reimbursement statement, as described in section 351.402(f)(2) of Commerce's regulations. The importer should provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation of the entry. If the importer certifies that it has an agreement with the producer, seller, or exporter, to be reimbursed antidumping duties, CBP shall double the antidumping duties in accordance with the above-referenced regulation. Additionally, if the importer does not provide the reimbursement statement prior to liquidation, reimbursement shall be presumed and CBP shall double the antidumping duties due. If an importer timely files a protest challenging the presumption of reimbursement and doubling of duties, consistent with CBP's protest process, CBP may accept the reimbursement statement filed with the protest to rebut the presumption of reimbursement.
